

Clinical Fellow

Mental Health and Metabolic Clinic @ CAMH, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH), Toronto

Position Description: The Mental Health and Metabolic Clinic @CAMH aims to improve the understanding and treatment of metabolic issues and antipsychotic induced weight gain in psychosis with a focus on applying pharmacological interventions to improve psychopathology, cognition, and metabolic outcomes in individuals with serious mental illness. The Clinic is currently seeking individuals with an MD for one fellowship position. Trainees should be eligible to practice in Ontario for an educational license (i.e. having completed residency). The successful candidate will be involved in providing care to some of the most complex patients with mental and metabolic health concerns, and in this role be a part of a multidisciplinary team of experts in the area. They will also have an opportunity to participate in clinical research. Research undertaken includes clinical trials, pre-clinical studies, and imaging, thus providing a broad range of opportunities. The candidate will support a healthy workplace that embraces diversity, encourages teamwork, and complies with all applicable regulatory and legislative requirements. This position is located at 1051 Queen Street West, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH), Toronto.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will possess an MD and would have completed their residency in psychiatry. You will have knowledge of, and clinical experience working with, mental health populations. Expertise in clinical interviewing and assessment is required. Excellent organizational, interpersonal, and written communication skills as well as the ability to work effectively and independently in a fast-paced clinical environment are also essential.

The position is available as of September 2022 (1 year). Dates can be negotiated. The position will be supported by clinical billings, and the applicant must be eligible to obtain a full or educational license from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario (CPSO). Interested applicants should send their CV and contact information for two referees to Dr. Mahavir Agarwal (Mahavir.Agarwal@camh.ca).
