

Clinical Research Fellowship in Forensic Psychiatry

Description of the fellowship opportunity:

The clinical research Fellowship will provide the fellow with research training in clinical forensic psychiatry, and the opportunity to work in one of the leading academic centers in North America. The Fellowship is open to psychiatry trainees or those who have recently completed their training who are interested in pursuing a career in academic forensic psychiatry. Areas of scholarship include but are not limited to: prison / correctional psychiatry, forensic risk and recovery, patient safety, ethics, and quality improvement. The fellow will have access to a broad range of multidisciplinary educational events within the Department of Psychiatry and through other departments at U of T, in addition to educational opportunities at CAMH. Eligible fellows who obtain a certificate from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario will be able to undertake 1-1.5 days per week of clinical duties within the diverse forensic program at CAMH.

Fellowships will be for one year with the possibility of renewal for a second year. The Fellowship will be supervised by Professor Sandy Simpson, Chair in Forensic Psychiatry and Dr. Roland Jones, Associate Professor in Forensic Psychiatry.

Training start date:

Fellowship training should start on July 1 annually if possible, to align with the new academic year. However, alternative start dates may be negotiated in consultation with the fellowship supervisor (see below) & Psychiatry Fellowship Program (psych.fellows@utoronto.ca).

Stipend availability:

Candidates selected for the Clinical Research Fellowship in Forensic Psychiatry opportunity will be provided with a stipend of $70,000 CAD/annum. Sponsored* and self-funded candidates are also eligible to apply (see Psychiatry Fellowship Program's website for more information).

* Sponsored candidates are applicants from the following countries whose governments have official postgraduate medical training agreements with the university of Toronto: Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, United Arab Emirates, and Saudi Arabia.
